WHEN SOME ONE CARES.

When you meet some disappointment, an' yer feelin' kind-o-blue; When yer plans have all got sidetracked er some friend has proved untrue; When yer toiling, praying, struggling at the bottom uv the stairs—It is like a panacea—just to know that some one cares.

Some one who can appreciate one's efforts when he tries;
Some one who seems to understand—an'
to sympathize;
Some one who, when he's far away, still wonders how he fares.
Some one who never can forget—some one who really cares.

It will send a thrill of rapture through the framework uv the heart; It will stir the inner bein' till the tear drops want to start; For this life is worth the livin', when some one yer sorrow shares—Life is truly worth the livin', when you know that some one cares.

Oh, this world is not all sunshine—many days dark clouds disclose; There's a cross for ev'ry joy bein', an' a thorn for ev'ry rose; But the cross is not so grievous, ner the thorn the rosebud wears—An' the clouds have silver linin'—when some one really cares.

FAREWELL DANCE.

Messrs. Chas. Vaught and Edwin Cobb were hosts of a very enjoyable farewell dance which was held at the Madison Tobacco Warehouse on last Friday evening.
The music was furnished by the Opera House Orchestra. The attendance was large and the dance was one of the most delightful of the season.

MISS WOODRUFF ENTERTAINED

Miss Woodruff, of San Diego, Cal., who has been the attractive visitor of Miss Julia White, was the recipient of much attention during her stay in Richmond.
On Wednesday Miss Mary D. Pickels gave a lovely luncheon in her honor, and on Thursday Miss Sarah Quisenberry entertained with an Alhambra party, and on the following Saturday Miss Jane D. Stockton was hostess of a pretty tea preceded by a most enjoyable picture show party.

Mrs. T. S. Hagan entertained very charmingly at bridge on Friday in honor of Mrs. Marshall Collins, of Annapolis, Md.

LOVELY RECITAL.

One of the prettiest musical events of the Fall was the Piano Recital given by Miss Marie Louise Kellogg, pupil of Mrs.
G. W. Pickels, at the home of the latter on Saturday afternoon at three o'clock.
Miss Kellogg gives promise of being a brilliant performer and is especially gifted as an accompanist.

The singing of Miss Henrietta Luxon was also greatly enjoyed. She has a rich full voice, unusual in one so young.

The instrumental numbers by little Alice Clark Kellogg, aged eleven years, were beautifully executed. Both children inherit the musical talent of their mother and reflect much credit on their able instructors, Mrs. G. W. Pickels, Mrs. J. R.
Johnson and Miss Mary Traynor.

The following is the programme in full:

PART I
Prelude Op. 3, No. 2 Rachmaninoff Voice—The Silver Ring Chaminade
Miss Luxon
a On The Sea Schytte
b La Poncee Valsante (Waltzing Doll) Poldini
Miss Kellogg
Piano—Slumber Song Nevin
Miss Alice Clark Kellogg
Venetienne (Barcarolle) Godard
Miss Kellogg
PART II
Voice—At Dawning Cadman
Miss Luxon
Berceuse from "Joelene" Godard
Miss Kellogg
Piano—A Scotch Poem MacDowell
Miss Alice Clark Kellogg
Sonata Pathetique Op. 13 Beethoven (Allegro Con brio)
Rondo—Allegro
Miss Kellogg

RECEPTION AT EASTERN

Quite a pretty reception was given by Dr. and Mrs. Crabbe and the Faculty of Eastern State Normal to the Students on Saturday evening at Sullivan Hall.
The parlors were tastefully decorated with woodbine and yellow canna, the work of Miss Gibson and Miss McKee.

In the receiving line were: Dr. and Mrs.
Crabbe, Mrs. Roark, Miss Hurst and Miss Hemphill.

The punch table was especially attractive; the bowl being nestled among green vines and nasturtiums. This was placed in the main hall and was presided over by Mrs.
S. B. Hume assisted by several of the young ladies.

This was the first reception of the season and proved most delightful.

Mrs. John Malloy and family, of this city, motored to Lancaster last Sunday, and were guests of relatives in that city.

gratulated on the arrival of a fair daughter who has been christened Nancy Evelyn Jeff. Congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Deatherage have returned from Crab Orchard Springs.

News comes from Mrs. Turley who has been in the hospital under the Mayo Brothers at Rochester, Minn., that she is rapidly improving and will soon be at home. This will be very gratifying in the community where she has many warm friends.

Miss Burnam Taylor has accepted a position to teach in the primary department of the Union City High School.

Mrs. N. A. Elder has returned to her home in Lake Village, Ark., after a visit to her son in this city.

Mrs. Carlo Brittain and son Baldwin, have returned to Washington City to join Capt. Brittain.

Raymond and Eugene Roark have returned to Madison, Wis. The former being an instructor in the University and the latter to take a post graduate course.

at the P. A. C. Infirmary.

Mrs. Dean, of this city, was visiting in Lexington several days last week.

Mr. Edward Cornelison was among the number who attended the State Fair at Louisville last week, showing some very fine Orpingtons. He carried off all of the prizes on S. C. Black Orpingtons except two, which were won by Marlen Lilly and the proprietor of the Poinsette Poultry Farm of Louisville.

Mrs. E. C. Wines, Sr., is quite sick at her home on Collins Street.

Mr. John Welch and mother, of Berea, and Miss Ellen Gilbert motored to Louisville one day last week.

Mr. Homer Cress, of Monticello, Ky., is attending the State Normal School in this city.

Dr. Bosley was a recent visitor in Lancaster.

Mrs. G. M. Brooks, of Carlsle, was a visitor in our city last week.

Mrs. Dunlap Blanton visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Blanton in Lancaster Sunday.

J. I. Flora and W. J. Newsom, of the Monumental Works, Richmond, were here the first of the week putting up some nice work in the cemetery.—Wilmore Enterprise.

minion.

Climax And Madisonian Con- solidate

Mr. Lilly, of the Madisonian, has bought a block of stock in the Climax Printing Company, and the Climax and Madisonian will be consolidated under the name of The Climax-Madisonian.
The Madisonian-Climax, which ever the people prefer which consolidation will be in force on October 1.

Mr. Lilly will continue as editor and Dr. White will hold down the position of book-keeper and secretary, while Duke Gordon will continue as foreman.

The consolidation of these two plants gives them the largest subscription list ever had by any paper in Madison county, and also gives them the best and most complete mechanical outfit.

Don't forget that Tuesday October 6 is Registration Day. Every one who takes an interest in the affairs of the City, County and State should register and thus qualify himself to vote. This is open to women voters.

Lotus Eaters.

In Greek legends lotus eaters were a people who ate the fruit and drank the juice of the lotus, a prickly shrub possessing the power to cause consumers to lose all thoughts of home and kindred and to sink into a stupor in which they were but half awake and half asleep. The term is now sometimes applied to persons who forget the claims of relatives and country, or to those who lead a languid and listless life.

Relic Highly Valued.

A handkerchief formerly belonging to Richard Wagner, with a dedication to the composer's bride embroidered on it, was sold for $720 at Munich.

Each a Law unto Himself.

put forth the leaf that is created in him. Education is only like good culture; it changes the size but not the sort.—H. W. Beecher.

The Spreader Sensation of the Year.

We Have the Agency For It. It Is the

Steel Frame Low Spread Manure Spreader

Have you ever seen any spreader with more or as many good features? Waist high box—easy to load; makes the shortest turns and spreads evenly at corners; spreads when turning either way; positive force feed—no rolling forward of the load when the manure is moved toward the beater; even spreading until the last forkful is spread; made in seven sizes; wide and narrow boxes; special attachments for drilling and spreading lime.

Ask us also about our new wide spread attachment which scatters manure over an area eight feet wide—a very handy and convenient device for top dressing growing corn.

The next time you are in town stop and get a catalogue.
Ask us to show you this machine—to show you how it will save work and increase profits. Give us a chance to prove that the Low Spread tops them all.

Mat Hacker Resigns

Mat Hacker, who formerly lived here and who married Miss Carse, daughter of the late A. E.
Carse, and who has been living at Nicholasville for the last ten years where he was the efficient and popular agent of the L. & N.
Railroad, has resigned his position, and it is understood will go into business at that point.

Mr. Hacker has great talent as an inventor and has added many utilities for the benefit of the world. His latest invention is a patent window dresser, and on this Mat expects to grow rich.

It has been on exhibition in Lexington during the fair and has attracted much attention. Many local people have taken stock in the enterprise.

The midwinter meeting of the State Press Association will be in Louisville, December 28 and 29. Mr. McBryde is the chairman of the program committee.

Great preparations are being made for this event, which bids fair to be most enthusiastic.
Many elaborate entertainments are being planned for the visitors.

The Schools are Opening, the Boys and Girls will want to be shod. Where to buy is the question? We can solve the shoe problem. For the boys and girls, "The Billiken" "Pat Cogans," "Riley," "Dugan & Hudson." The "Good for Bad Boy's" also is what you want for the rougher wear. All kinds of heavy shoes for the boys.
